PLS Minutes 8/4/2016

The meeting was called to order at 10:30 by President Beverly Davis. The minutes from the June and July meetings were approved as written in the newsletter. There was no treasurer's report, but Pauline said there have not been many changes since last month.

Library update: Beverly says all of the books will be back in the library by the September meeting. The labels have been made larger and clearer. Be sure to complete the sign out/ in sheet when taking or returning books.

Tatting quarterly: Cheryl Burke from Eugene has offered to lead the next tatting quarterly featuring tatting on ostrich eggs. The eggs cost $25 if you want to purchase one (optional). The Pioneer Truck Villa near Brownsville, OR has a meeting room that can be used. Think about it and a decision will be made at the next meeting.

The nominating committee is seeking members to fill the offices of president, vice president, and treasurer for next year. Contact Lynda Libby with your recommendations.

Lace Day is going to be on Oct. 8 at the Milwaukie Center. Set up begins at 9:00. A sign -up sheet was passed around for people to help with various activities. We would really like to have many better quality door prizes this year. The club will pay for materials for those who want to make some things.

Upcoming Demos include the State Fair, Clackamas County fair, and Oregon Flock and Fiber. Thank you Marilyn Barnes for hosting this annual picnic. The meeting was adjourned at 11:15, follow by a potluck lunch.

Respectfully submitted, Lynda Libby for Marilyn Barnes

PLS Minutes

9/1/2016

We had a short get-together with no "formal" meeting. Visited and talked some about Lace Day and upcoming class.

Bucks/Beds Class—Oct. 14,15,16

Sorry about leaving out the all important info on the days for the Bucks/Beds Lace Class. Most picked up on the info from the front page in the Looking Ahead section, but nonetheless, it was not meant to be a scavenger hunt for the date. I just left it off the form.

With red face,

Jean 8>{

There is still room in the class, so if you wanted to come and have not signed up, there is still a few places left. Hurry!

Tatting Quarterly—

Good news!! We have a tatting quarterly organized and scheduled. Sherry Campbell and Cheryl Birch will be hosting a make and take tatting embellishments on November 12 from 10:00 till lunch time at Willamette Heritage Museum (I call it Mission Mill still....).

Venessa, I will be in touch about organizing lunch a little closer to the event.

Sherry and Cheryl will be using the Collage tatting book, which has lots of patterns that are suitable for stationary, holiday decorations, pictures, and Cheryl will bring her Ostrich eggs if anyone is interested in purchasing one. She is asking $25 each. If you know interested buyers (even if they don't tat), I am sure she would appreciate you letting her know. Sherry will bring her book to the next PLS meeting, but if you can't make it, contact her about possible topics you might want to find patterns for.

Once again, thanks so much to Cheryl and Sherry for coming up with the idea.

Cheers.

Jackie

Consignment Table with many goodies.

Raffle Items and door prizes.

This is a new location so be sure and look it up on-line or get out a GPS.

Bring your own Lace Table so we can sit around in a circle. There will be a couple of tables to put your pins and tools on by your side. We have a bigger space and we want to spread out and give room to walk between us and encourage visiting, showing off, and working etc.

Try-me pillows will be out and ready. Plan on helping out for a while so we can all have time to shop and share.

Tatter is in—Sherrie Campbell will head up the tatting for beginners or anyone wanting to brush up on their skills or continue from last year.

This is a tatting pattern a lady in Poland had been putting on her blog - one round a week? I've finished 11 rounds so far - 5 more to go but not sure if she is done yet. The translation of the Polish is a little wonky but I think there might be more rounds coming. Attached is a photo of what I've finished so far. Kathy Hensel

Marilyn Charles finished her Un-Convention project of the pretty little flower and also finished some yardage she had going for a while. She thinks you might see this on the sleeves and bottom of a T-Shirt some day.

OIDFA-

Well, we are all still excited about the OIDFA Congress and the Idrija projects, shopping, pillows, stands etc.

The special order pillows have arrived and we are all preparing to get a group picture to send back to Chipka Mokia. They are especially interested in the "big" pillows that Beverly and I got. They want to put us on their Web Page.

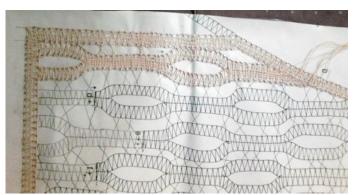

The stands that Beverly and I got were not finished so we are busy sanding, staining and sealing those up. Hopefully we will have pictures by next issue.

Carol has started a large vest project and will show us updates as she works through it. Here is the beginning —-

Good start with the outline and now she is starting to fill in the center —-

That looks like a lot of twist and cross to me.
