1/8/26 PLS Meeting Notes

Vice President, Valerie Sims called the meeting to order with 11 members present. Only the Vice President and secretary were at the meeting so we held no investiture.

Treasurer's Report: $5,909.33

Education Report:

1. Lise volunteered to host Elizabeth Peterson in May. There was discussion about recompense for the hosting member. Once members have signed up for the class various carpooling and housing options will be worked out.

2. River will contact Tina about information on the Allie Marguccio class in fall 2026.

Librarian Report: Beverly brought some books for us to peruse. She will have information about moving the library books to new locations next month.

Meeting dates for the future: It has been suggested that future meetings will be held on the 3rd Saturday in the month at 10:00 a.m. in order to make them more accessible to working members. We will hold a vote on this option at the February meeting.

Meeting Structure discussion: The following suggestions were made to make the meetings more interesting and relevant: mini classes, lectures, demos by members, beginners table with helpers every month. In the next newsletter we will post a request for members to demo, lecture, etc. The following were suggested for demonstrations by members:

- Spangling bobbins
- Lace starts and finishes
- Tips and techniques, such as weaver's knot and adding threads
- Antique lace
- Thread selection and substitutions

"I send you my wish for the Holidays and I wish you and all the members a very happy and healthy new year. Best wishes and happy lacemaking" from Lia Baumeister-Jonker

Tommie is back from her surgery recovery, during which she says she made 22 comfort chickens. But, she had started this shawl and since coming home finished it. It starts at the outside edge with over 1,000 stitches and each row gets smaller as you work to the center. ~Jean

Beverly gave some lace from a Cantù project to a family member who used them to make this stocking for her. There is another lace piece on the back the same. What a great idea. ~Jean
