Highlights from Saturday meeting July 25, 2026.

We had an informal get-together as our Pres. and VP were on a plane coming home from IOLI. There were nine of us present. Five from our regular attendees at the McMinnville Saturday meeting. Nice to see everyone and hopefully more of those regulars can get used to the easy trip on I-5 up to Tualatin and be able to participate in regular meetings.

Anna brought one of her students and now we have a new member. Good start with the bookmarks.

We can always count on Tommie to knit up a storm and here is the latest shawl. Thank you Susan for modeling.

HenryRose hard at work getting all the little threads clipped. All worth it for the finished Butterfly.

Lauryn Clough is busy with a crochet hook making some expressive skulls. Such fun to pull them out into all kinds of expressions.

She is making a piece for a friend. Nice work.

Susan got started on a triangle for the needlelace project. Looking good.

How clever is this. Anna put her lace in between two clear plates. What a great way to serve cookies. Now I need to find the plates. Amazon, here I come!

Anna again doing her picture lace based on the watercolor picture of her grandparents' home that she did as a child. She put a copy of the original on the back of the frame.

Beverly tatted this great flag.

How appropriate for the 250-year USA Celebration and for the State Fair.

Look at all those rings!

Let's have fun at the fair.
